

Preserving Cash

Crisis management for commercial aviation suppliers

Crisis Management

In light of the Covid-19 pandemic, commercial aviation suppliers are facing never-before seen declines in world wide demand for airline travel. In this quarter's survey, we asked suppliers how they plan to preserve cash in the months ahead:

Here is what we found:

- 51% are eliminating overtime
- 49% are cutting executive compensation
- 45% are cutting sales & marketing expenditures
